

Last-32 clashes to kick off next Friday

By Neville Khoza

Orlando Pirates and AmaZulu clash has been set for Sunday, February 6 at Orlando Stadium at 3pm, as the Premier Soccer League (PSL) confirmed the dates and venues of the Nedbank Cup last-32 round yesterday.

The University of Pretoria and Chippa United will officially kick start the competition's first round programme when they meet on February 4 at Tuks Stadium at 3pm.

Later in the day, Richards Bay will lock horns with Mamelodi Sundowns at Princess Magogo Stadium at 6pm. While defending champions Marumo Gallants will start their defence for the title with a home match against Santos, who campaign in the ABC Motsepe League at Peter Mokaba Stadium on February 13.

The biggest fixture in the last-32 is no doubt the Pirates v AmaZulu clash where Usuthu coach Benni McCarthy will look to avenge the 1-2 defeat they suffered at the hands of Bucs in the same venue in their last match last year.

In their earlier league match this season, the two drew 1-1 in

Bucs, AmaZulu the pick of Ke Yona first round

Durban.

Apart from the Nedbank, AmaZulu and Pirates are also featured in the group rounds of the CAF Champions League and the Confederation Cup respectively.

Their Nedbank Bank clash

will only be their second ever cup meeting in the PSL era, which stretches back to August 1996.

In November 2018, Pirates aced Usuthu 3-1 after extra time in a Telkom Knockout quarter-final contest at Moses Mabhida Stadium.

Jordaan joins mourners in paying tribute to Dan Pasiya

Bush Bucks founder, 87, to be buried Friday

By Mninawa Ntloko

SA Football Association (Safa) president Danny Jordaan has paid tribute to Dan Pasiya and joined the nation's soccer lovers in mourning the death of the respected philanthropist, businessman and former sports administrator a few days ago.

Jordaen said the 87-year-old Pasiya, who died in an East London hospital on Saturday, left an indelible mark on society after helping to put the Eastern Cape on the map through his soccer club Mthatha Bucks, his many businesses and other entrepreneurial ventures.

“The Eastern Cape province had a long struggle to have a team in the professional league,” Jordaan said. “It has always been a struggle. There was always this belief that Eastern Cape is a boxing and rugby province. But when you come from rural parts of the Eastern Cape, it is even worse. So when people who have been there in the trenches (die), it is very sad.

"Our deepest sympathy and prayers go to the family.”

Pasiya took over Bucks in 1986 and the club grew from strength to strength, eventually becoming a feared force in the top flight, especially when they were playing at their Independence Stadium home ground.

“No team liked to go to Mthatha to play them and they were feared.”

Pasiya will be buried on Friday and the Eastern Cape government is expected to grant him a provincial funeral.
