Ntsoelengoe also played in the NASL and was inducted into the US National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2003. “The Women’s Afcon-winning coach [Ellis], who led the South African senior women’s national team to the continental title in 2022 in Morocco, will be inducted with several figures from South African football on November 20,” Sifa said. The SA Hall of Fame said the inductees are “legends who have shaped the history of SA football and will be celebrated in a grand ceremony that recognises their unparalleled contributions both on and off the field. “Distinguished guests ... including prominent figures in the world of football, will gather to honour these champions whose legacies have inspired generations.
